Description

Cadbury Bro Ltd painted toleware churn, circa 1900 - a perfect seat for that perfect corner.

Toleware is a decorative technique involving hand-painted tin or metal surfaces, popular from the 18th to 19th centuries. Originating in Europe, it features floral, geometric, or scenic designs. Toleware items, such as trays and tea sets, are valued for their vibrant, detailed artwork and durability, combining functional beauty with artistic expression.
