

1930s silver filigree peacock brooch

Sold

Description

A 1930s silver filigree work peacock brooch with hinged front section, marked as silver, Siam.

When worn the hinge makes it appear as though the tail display is moving.

Siam silver is a distinctive type of silverware from Thailand, known for its intricate designs and high quality. Originating in the late 19th to early 20th centuries, it often features ornate patterns and detailed craftsmanship as shown in this brooch.