Description

A P.H. Vogel & Co Art Deco champagne bucket with ring handles, circa 1920.

P H Vogel & Co, founded in 1894, was a prominent British silversmith and jewelry manufacturer. Based in Birmingham, the company specialized in silver and gold jewelry, as well as silverware.

Art Deco, an influential design movement from the 1920s and 1930s, is characterised by its bold geometric shapes, luxurious materials, and vibrant colours. Emerging in the aftermath of World War I, Art Deco embraced modernity, glamour, and progress. Its style is marked by symmetry, sleek lines, and a blend of traditional craftsmanship with modern industrial techniques.

Art Deco's legacy continues to be seen in contemporary design, where its elegant, yet forward-thinking aesthetic remains a symbol of dynamism and the allure of modern luxury.
