

Herend porcelain cabaret set in Chinese bouquet Apponyi orange pattern

Sold

Description

Herend porcelain cabaret set in Chinese bouquet Apponyi orange pattern comprising two cups, saucers, plates, hot water jug, milk jug, sugar bowl, tea pot, and tray. Circa 1940.

Herend porcelain, established in Hungary in 1826, is renowned for its exquisite craftsmanship and intricate hand-painted designs. Famous for its vibrant patterns and high-quality materials, Herend pieces often feature floral motifs and traditional patterns. Highly collectible, Herend porcelain combines artistic elegance with exceptional durability, reflecting a rich heritage of fine artistry.