Description

The Imperial Good Companion Typewriter, circa 1940. In original case and fully restored ready to type that nascent novel.

The Imperial Good Companion typewriter, introduced in the 1930s, is celebrated for its robust design and portability. Known for its distinctive appearance, compact size, and reliable performance, it became a popular choice for writers and professionals. Its efficient mechanism and stylish design reflect the elegance of early 20th-century office equipment.
