Description

Kangxi porcelain familie vert vase late converted to a table lamp. Vase circa 1720.

Kangxi porcelain, produced during China's Kangxi Emperor's reign (1661-1722), is renowned for its exceptional quality and vibrant designs. Characterised by intricate patterns and vibrant colours, often featuring floral and landscape motifs, it reflects the height of Qing dynasty craftsmanship and remains highly prized among collectors and connoisseurs.

Rewired with twisted fabric flex and PAT tested.
Dimensions are for the vase and exclude the lamp fittings.

Please note that the shade is for display purposes and is not included with the lamp.
