Description

A Victorian silver mounted hand blown wine decanter with silver stopper, hallmarked for Birmingham 1884.

Silver-mounted decanters feature elegant metal fittings, such as rims, handles, and stoppers, often crafted from sterling silver. These embellishments add sophistication and a touch of luxury to glass decanters. Popular in the 18th and 19th centuries, they combine functionality with ornate design, enhancing both the presentation and preservation of fine beverages.
