Description

Large 17th century blood red red Florentine baroque silk cushion backed with black and white stripe fabric. Silk circa 1680 and sold through French & Co.

Florentine Baroque silk, prominent in the 17th century, is renowned for its opulent patterns and rich textures. Woven in Florence, it features intricate, often metallic designs reflecting the grandeur of the Baroque era. This luxurious fabric, used in fashion and interior design, exemplifies the artistic sophistication and elegance of its time.
